Jim Dupler demonstrates metal and mineral inlay

Jim did a wonderful job of demonstrating a metal inlay on a small lidded box. He was nice enough to answer questions.

The members of the team putting together the display for the upcoming contest at the AAW symposium in Pittsburg. Impressive!

Thanks, Tim Kennedy, Cindy Cwi, Curt Rush, Ron Cruze Bob Anderson and Jim Dupler.

Dan Jordan brought in a lidded box made from Zerbrawood (Zebrano) with a Walnut finial.

Jim Dupler brought in intricately carved ball on a driftwood (Sycamore) base.

Cindy Cwi brought in several nice Walnut items. A natural edge, a bowl with eggs, (kind of looks like a nest) and small bowl with a carved edge.

Jim Aebi showed us a lovely and intricate segmented vase. Unfortunately he could not remember all the woods used in this creation.

Ed Archer brought in his candlestick with carved flowers. Very nice!

Be sure to bring in your next project to share with the group. We would love to see it.
