Dixie Biggs demonstrates power carving.

The club had a very nice turnout for Dixie Biggs' demonstration on power carving.

She showed us how to carve a couple of maple leaves on a cherry disc. She was very detailed with her instructions and took time to answer all questions.

Lee Ellis brought in a large walnut bowl with a granite stone inlay.

Rich Parker showed us a nice walnut bowl made with his new lathe.

Bob Anderson shared his poplar peppermill inspired sculpture finished with leather dyes.

Jim Dupler brought in another impressive vase with carved leaves and the disc he made in Dixie's class from the day before.

Cindy Cwi brought in a nice bowl (pear) of eggs and her disc from the previous day's class.

Tim Kennedy showed off his art work made with his homemade pyrography set and his disc from the previous day's class.

Dan Jordan brought in a couple of bowls. One out of figured maple and the other out of walnut.

Be sure to bring in your next project to share with the group. We would love to see it.
