Join us on March 4th for a special day of learning from professional wood turner and sculptor, Mark Gardner. The demonstration will be held at the Skiles electric wood shop in Speedway, IN (direction on page 6). Start time is 9:00 a.m. and we will have a pitch-in lunch (details on page 6). The day will end at approximately 5:00 p.m. The cost to attend is only $25.00 per person ($30.00 for non-members). This demo will include: turning 2-piece hollow forms; surface embellishment; and turning a 3 axis square bowl.

Mr. Gardner has won many awards for his work:

Bronze Award, Smithsonian Craft Show 2004
Award for Excellence in Wood, Washington Craft Show 2003
Artistic Expression Award, American Craft Exposition 2003
Award of Achievement, American Craft Council Baltimore Winter 2003
International Turning Exchange Residency, Wood Turning Center, 2001
First Place, Wood Category, Cincinnati Summer Fair, 1999.
Robert H. Skinner Memorial Scholarship, Gatlinburg Rotary Club.
